Great Exposition at Denver

Denver, Colo., June 30th. The best attempt at an exposition has ever been made in the west-states is well under way by the Colorado Inter State Fair and Exposition, which has arranged a two weeks exhibition. The grounds at Farr Park are being remodeled and made to present grand stand is fast approaching completion and it is predicted by everyone familiar with the preparation and amount of money being expended the show will be the best ever west of the Mississippi River.

The show will be an attractive one. The premium list with aggregating $40,000.00 will be about July 10th, and copies of the program may be had by addressing Secretary G. C. Fuller, Denver.

Redd, an old pioneer of this county and a veteran of the Walker War, family moved to the plains, and Lemuel was then only 14 years of age.

He then moved from St. Joe, Mo. to Salt Lake City. The family being located in Spanish Fork, being with a few other

Wedding Bells

One of the most delightful social events that ever occurred in the little rural town of Mapleton was that of the wedding of Miss Maury Wright of Chicago, and Mr. Robt. Newhall of Hood River Oregon.

The wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newton at 1.30 p. m. today. While Miss Flora Cone played the wedding march, the bride in the arm of her brother, Mr. Albert Wright accompanied by her sister Miss Clara Wright, as brides-maid, met the groom with the officiating clergyman, Mr. Lenord, under the canopy of a magnificent old boxelder tree on the lawn, and there plighted their troth and assumed the marriage vows.

After congratulations there was served a most inviting wedding feast.

After luncheon Mr. Lenord acting as toast master, the following toasts were given. "The Bride", responded to by Mrs. Lee. "The Groom", Gillilan, "Honey Moon", Mrs. Robert Miller,
"After the Honey Moon," Mrs. Bradford, then followed the leave taking and the good byes, and the happy pair left for their new home in Oregon.

Married Men Beat Kids

After nine innings of nerve wrecking, heart breaking ball playing last Friday afternoon the married men turned out the winners of one of the most brilliantly played ball games ever seen in this city, or anywhere else for that matter.

Freeman in the box for the winners pitched gilt edged ball fanning two and allowing only forty seven safe hits.

Robertson on the other hand seemed to have a day off and was hit frequently.

The feature of the game was when Johnson, the boys great catcher hit the ball far into the center garden, ran around the bases in nothing flat and was touched out by ye scribe who was guarding the home plate.

The next game of this series will be played between the married men and the Volunteer Fire Department. It is hoped there will be something doing that day also.

Old Pictures

Have you an old daugerrototype, tintype or any other old picture that is fast fading away that you value very highly?

We make a specialty of copying old pictures and will for a short time give fifteen photos for the price of a dozen.
We will also give equally as good a reduction on life size portraits in crayon water color or pastel. We will not harm nor lose your old picture. Bring them in now at Stahmann's Studio.

Heroism.

What a hero one can be without moving a finger! The world is not a field worthy of us, nor can we be satisfied with the plains of Troy. A glorious strife seems waxing within us, yet so noiselessly that we but just catch the sound of the clarion ringing or victory, borne to us on the breeze. There are in each the seeds of an heroic ardor, which need only to be stirred in with the soil where they lie, by an inspired voice or pen, to bear fruit of a divine flavor.—Thoreau

Eggs Scarce in England.

This country is not alone in facing an egg problem. England is endeavoring to stimulate egg production, and a railway egg train is planned to be dispatched through western England and Wales, where it is said that the egg industry is at a low ebb. The United Kingdom now imports nearly one and the eggs consumed.
